A new era for market definition

Read about the puzzle pieces that are signs of a new era dawning for antitrust market definition in Europe, in Viktoria Robertson's latest paper.

Competition Law in Conversation: Rethinking Competition Law

Join us for our next event on 20 April 2021 (4pm Vienna), when we discuss whether the current state of competition law needs a considerable overhaul in the face of challenges ranging from big tech to environmental sustainability. We are joined by Ariel Ezrachi (University of Oxford) and Michelle Meagher (University College London & Inclusive Competition Forum). Register here!

Abusive IP-Based Legal Proceedings

In the newest LIDC publications, read Petar Petrov's co-authored contribution on abusive IP-based legal proceedings in France.

At the upcoming (virtual) STS Conference in Graz, we will discuss whether the digitalisation of markets and big data may pose a threat to a democratic society – including possible competition law implications. Speakers include Anna Gerbrandy (Utrecht University), Erich Prem (Technical University Vienna), and Iva Nenadic (University of Zagreb).
